

REGION FAILS TO REAP WORLD COURT ADHESION

Plan Declared Partisan in San Antonio Gets 1928
Draft Bill Churned

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 14. (AP)—The American national convention today refused to reconsider its vote to take at Omaha last year when it favored the World Court. A resolution reaffirming the vote was rejected by a large vote after speeches had been made. The World Court had become a political question and adoption of the resolution would be violating the League of Nations constitution which provides that the organization cannot be used for the dissemination of partisan principles. The World Court were not discussed by those who spoke.

The question of a unified air service for the Army and Navy went over to the committee a year after the conference on aeronautics had adopted a recommendation that there be one department of air services with land, sea and air forces.

The committee, after long conferences, agreed to vote on to change the recommendation to an expression that it "looks with favor upon" the proposition.

The committee then agreed to the appointment of a committee of nine to study the entire question and report to the next conference.

SAN ANTONIO IN 1928
San Antonio, Tex., won the 1928 convention of the legion after a contest with Miami and Denver.
Next year's convention will be held in Paris, France.

The convention will adjourn tomorrow after the election of the new commander and five vice-commanders.

The report of the military affairs committee, adopted by the convention, states that the American Legion believes the minimum requirement for national defense should be a reserve army of 15,000 men, 1,125,000 enlisted men, in addition to the recently authorized increase in the air corps.

There also should be, the report stated, a National Guard of 180,000, to be increased by 100,000 men to 280,000 by 1936; the training of all field, line and staff officers together with the enlisted personnel of the organized reserve should be together with the reserve every three years; a reserve officers' training corps adequate to provide for the training of all citizens in military training camp of 50,000 men; the procurement, development and maintenance of cost national armaments and camps as will properly equip all the before-mentioned contingents of the reserve; the further substantance of an adequate war reserve for three field ar-

CHEER DRAFT BILL

The delegates cheered when the committee reported it favors the immediate passage of the Johnson-Campbell measure which is known as the universal draft bill, "not only as a measure of preparedness, but also to prevent future wars, thus eliminating decease and profligate."

The committee endorsed the work of the National Rifle Association in its efforts to spread the doctrine of rifle marksmanship in high schools.

The report also contained the following:

"Believing that teaching of national defense to the youth of the nation is the highest patriotic duty, the American Legion stands resolutely for military training in the high schools, colleges and universities and is determined to oppose those pacifists, radicals, Communists and others who are endeavoring in every possible way to stop such training."

PRESIDENCY RACE

PHILADELPHIA. Oct. 14. and Mrs. Rose Spencer, Winona, Minn.; Mrs. Roman, the present national vice-president, and Mrs. Macaulay is the national chairman of the poppy committee. Macaulay is a leader in the Drama League, Omaha, a widely known personality and an author. The following are on the subject:

E. of the United States Attorney at San Francisco and a member of the France Travel Committee of the American Legion, is the auxiliary today, his talk being an unfinished chiefly to outlining the program for the trip to France. He told the women that only men-bered of the auxiliary may attend the convention.

BANDITS STAGE BLOODY AFFRAY

Machine-Gun Fire Mows Down Mail Truck Guards

One Dead, Three Wounded and Large Sum Stolen

Elizabeth (N. J.) Street Scene of Bold Outrage

ELIZABETH (N. J.) Oct. 14. (AP)—Eight bandits today killed a postal employee, wounded three other persons and looted a mail truck of $100,000 or more. Riding in two powerful cars, they crashed into the truck and its conveyer of one motorcycle policeman at Sixth street and Elizabeth avenue, on the edge of the business section, raked the streets with hand machine guns and sawed-off shotguns, broke into the truck and escaped with five bags of mail.

John Ems, a well-known semi-professional baseball player and driver of the truck, was toppled to the pavement, fatally wounded in the first round of shots.

The others wounded were Patrick P. Quinn, Ems' helper, policeman Jacob Christman and Arthur Decatur, a bystander.

TROOPERS TAKE TRAIL
A force of sixty-five state troopers was mustered and deployed about the Washington Mountains in the belief that the gunmen were at bay. Maj. Mark O. Kimberling, in charge, sent for reinforcements of fifty men.

The robbers' victims were shown no mercy. As the truck drew up to the Sixth-street intersection with Elizabeth avenue, the leading bandit car, containing four men, pulled in front of the truck. Ems applied the brakes and the second car swung to the rear, crashing into policeman Christman and throwing him from his motorcycle.

As the cars came to a stop, men leaped from both machines. Three turned their attention to the man on the driver's seat of the truck and Christmas. Operating their semiautomatic guns from the shoulder, the robbers sent a spray of bullets in all directions. Christman was shot as he lay helpless beneath his machine. Quinn, jumping from the seat with pistol in left hand, was incapacitated by a bullet through the wrist. Ems was shot through the head and fell unconscious, dying a few moments later.

BARRAGE OF LEAD
The three who were not firing at the victims formed a circle about the automobiles and set up a hail of .45-caliber bullets and stings, which sent the few pedestrians on the streets scurrying to cover.

A large growler and wire nipper were used to gain entry into the truck.

Of the mail sacks' contents, more than $100,000 was known to have been consigned by the Federal Reserve Bank of New York to the Elizabeth Post Trust Company. Bank officials would not reveal the exact amount.

Leaped Off Ship, Says Message

NEW YORK, Oct. 14. (AP)—David P. Davis, prominent Florida realtor, who was drowned from the White Star liner Majestic en route to Europe from New York, jumped through the cabin port, said a wireless message today from Commander G. R. McCall to the line's office here.

Details were very vague, the message said, adding that a witness to the drowning was ill, thus causing a delay in reporting the death. The commander said he was making a thorough investigation.

SECRET FOREST OF NEVADA DISCOVERED

CARSON CITY (Nev.) Oct. 14. (AP)—Discovery of a secret forest, harboring more than 200 rare Rocky Mountain sheep, near Las Vegas has been confirmed by Gov. James G. Scrugham.

The trees range from two to three feet in diameter, and are hidden from the outside world by lofty ridges in the Sheep Mountains. Photographs of the forest and sheep have been brought to Carson City by A. R. McCoulliston. Gov. Scrugham states efforts will be made to have the hidden valley converted into a state park.

TWO DIE IN YACHT MYSTERY

Finding of Women's Bodies Tell of Tragic Sequel to Gay Party Aboard Vessel

NEW HAVEN (Conn.) Oct. 14.—An evening of pleasure aboard a yacht found today on the beach near the New Haven Yacht Club.

After an all-day investigation the women drowned were identified tonight as Mrs. Mildred Tversill, 19 years of age, of this city, and Mrs. Minerva Pisco, whose home address has not been learned. Mrs. Pisco's father, who viewed the body, said she had not been living with her husband for some time. Mrs. Pisco had been married twice.

Near the bodies was the overturned boat from the yacht Capricorn, of which they had been entertained. Further up the shore lay the cars, while on the beach in various places were a man's overcoat and hat, two women's handbags and a cushion that might be used in a boat. The owner of the coat and hat were used to gain entry into the truck.

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 14. (AP)—Suits for $1500 damages growing out of an asserted fake oil stock promotion was filed in Superior Court yesterday against Thomas H. Adams, publisher of the Times-Sun (Ind.) Commercial, and leader in an investigation of asserted political corruption in Indiana.

By Claude E. Betsel, Lafayette (Ind.) business man. The complaint asserts that Adams sought "to defraud the plaintiff and others of the public" by placing on sale stock in Oklahoma oil leases when the leases had proved to produce "nothing but dry holes." It was further charged that Adams had never acquired title to the lease in which he sold stock.

A-DOF-LUS Contains Vital Elements of Health

What Every Doctor Knows

Acidophilus milk is prescribed and is acknowledged by its specific therapy in cases of intestinal disorders, chronic constipation, chronic diarrhea, and other intestinal ailments. Also recommended in treatment of rheumatic conditions and facial eruptions caused by intestinal errors, and in common diarrhea and other intestinal toxic conditions of infants.

Most people, young or old, are victims of intestinal trouble, which thrives in the intestinal passages as the direct result of over-eating. The vital organs do all they can to make the best of the situation, but in this they often need assistance.

An important function of A-dof-lus is to remove all contamination from the intestines and bring about normal functioning of the organisms of health.

This wholesome drink is in reality the well-known specific ad-
ed by doctors under the term "Acidophilus Milk."

Thousands are drinking A-dof-lus and bring marvelous results. Thousands delight in its pleasing, refreshing flavor. Because of its taste for A-dof-lus, for it is the balance wheel of health. If used daily and regularly good results are possible even before or with each meal. Our genuine Acidophilus milk pronunciation is called A-dof-lus.

ATWATER KENT RADIO

Why do 3 out of 4 people who ask for radio by name say "Atwater Kent"?

BECAUSE, with only ONE Dial to turn, it's so simple that anyone can get the same results as a radio engineer.

Because it works from the start—and keeps on working, and doesn't plague the owner with service costs.

Because it meets to-day's demand for power and efficiency in small space.

Because it's good to look at as well as to listen to.

Because its tone—at low or large volume—is clear and true.

Because it's a standard make—not here to-day and gone to-morrow.

Because to see and hear it is to want it.

And because to own it is to be satisfied, as hundreds of thousands of Atwater Kent Radio owners testify.

Let an Atwater Kent dealer show you how the price range is on the lowlands of popular desire, not up on the heights where few care to climb, and that you can't buy better Radio at any price.

Pass Play Adds to Strategy and Excitement of Grid Conflict

AERIAL WORK RESPONSIBLE FOR POPULARITY OF GAME

Star Michigan Quarterback Shows Various Uses of Pass Attack; Some Coaches Antagonistic

BY BENNY FRIEDMAN
Captains and Quarterback Coaches' 1933 All-American
(Copyright, 1934, by North American Newspaper Alliance.)

The forward pass is not altogether popular with some coaches and it is unpopular with a number of teams, but you can safely say that the forward pass is chiefly responsible for the present popularity of football.

This play has introduced more strategy into football than probably all the others combined. It has opened up the game and made it spectacular. It has provided a variety that football lacked before its introduction. It has, above everything else, given color to the offense and defense.

BROUGHT IN 1906
The forward pass was first introduced in 1906 by the rules committee in response to the many criticisms because of injuries in games.

So many restrictions accompanied the play when introduced that few coaches took advantage of it; most of them ignored it. Four years later further changes in the rules helped the forward pass.

It has, above everything else, given color to the offense and defense. The forward pass can be used either as a means of scoring or as a threat. A team with a good passer and capable receivers is able to use any style of attack with more success because of them.

VALUABLE AS THREAT
Consider the opportunities you have if your forward passer is also a good punter. You line up in punt formation. This makes it possible to use the ball to attack or pass it. The safety man of the opposing team is forced back. He cannot take a chance on a punt. If he does not go back, punt over him. The secondary defense moves out as protection against a pass. The line men are undecided. You may punt, pass or kick. The confusion in the defense benefits you, no matter what you intend to do.

The pass is worked in two different ways. One is the mechanical pass, the other is often called the choice pass. The mechanical pass is a set play. It calls for the pass to be made to a designated receiver at a designated spot. It is the best pass to use as a scoring play.

The choice pass has no definite receiver. Any eligible man may be the receiver. The slight risk consists of the two men at the end of the line and the backs. You can, therefore, have five men eligible to receive a pass.

It is up to the passer to pick the receiver on the choice pass. He will select, of course, a man whom he knows has not covered. To work this pass successfully a team must have an expert passer and good protection for the passer. He must be able to take his time. He must also be able to pass accurately. It may be a short pass or a long pass.

USE DESCRIPTION
Many coaches prize the long pass. Here the ball travels forty yards or more. Their argument is plausible. If the pass is completed the receiver will move fifty yards or more. If the pass is intercepted then it will still put you in the same spot where you would be had you punted. You have all to gain and nothing in particular to lose.

Most of the good passing teams use this kind of pass. They hide the intent of the pass. They have a forward pass play coupled with most of the running plays. The running play is used a few times to acquaint the defense team with its character. If it succeeds continue using it.

The defense will sooner or later learn to stop it. Then, later, start out the same way and change to a forward pass. For instance, if you work an end run for a gain, work the same play soon after. Try the end run several times and then use the forward-pass play that starts out as the end run does. Until the defense is pulled in to the spot where you want them, the play is the same as before, and then it suddenly shifts.

Some coaches still insist that the forward pass is too hazardous but with a good passer and good receivers, it is no more hazardous than any other play. Only one or two teams most plays if the quarterback has properly set the stage for the pass.

Teams used to try forward passes only on third and fourth down, depending on the position of the ball. On first and second down they would try running plays and if they did not make the yardage they attempted a forward pass on third down and, unless they happened to be within the opposing team's twenty-yard line, kicked on fourth down.

POLY GRIDDERS BATTLE ROMANS

Brennen's Eleven Favored to Whip Los Angeles

Toilers Picked Over Lincoln in Grudge Battle

Jefferson Plays Franklin on Democrat Tanbark

better Poly team to a 7-0 tie, and the same sort of ending is not improbable today.

Poly will depend on Capt. Eddie Griffith to plunger his way to victory, ably aided by Post, who should also feature as a line plunger, and Cook, who handles the passing game with Griffith. "Grid" handles the pigskin from the right side, while Cook crosses them up from the port side.

The signs point to a Poly victory for the first time since 1930, but if the Romans should win, it won't be an overwhelming surprise.

While the championship hopes of Poly and Los are high, the game is a contest that will put the winner out in front and off to a good start in the championship race.

The same situation that characterized the big game, also exists in the Toiler clash. At the beginning of the season, Coach "Happy" Van Pelt's Bulldogs were expected to fight a set-up for Coach Jim Blewett's Artisans, but as the day of the game has approached, it now appears that Lincoln is a good even bet to wallop the Toilers for last year's upset.

Van Pelt's team is built around one man, Winston Jones, a husky negro fullback. The Manual Arts fullback, who is expected to be a sensation this year, Le Fèvre started out at full, but has since been shifted to right half. Eaton at the other half will chuck passes, while Rosenberg, whom Coach Foster insists is Irish, will sock the line at full. De Mott, a heavy player, is called signals for the second year.

Neither team has a particularly strong line, but Lincoln's wall is expected to be a sensation this year. Le Fèvre started out at full, but has since been shifted to right half. Eaton at the other half will chuck passes, while Rosenberg, whom Coach Foster insists is Irish, will sock the line at full. De Mott, a heavy player, is called signals for the second year.

However the game comes out, it should furnish the palpating public with plenty of action. Tossed at the bottom of the heap because of two more popular contests the annual Jefferson-Franklin grudge battle, will be played on the Democrat gridiron. With Franklin having another chance to avenge last year's defeat, the game is expected to be a close one.

Coach Fryer has improved the Democrats considerably since their narrow victory over Lincoln, and Jefferson once more ranks as a title-contending team.

Bruin Mentor Makes Changes in Preparation for Invasion of Oregon Aggies

BERKELEY, Oct. 14. (P)—Several changes in the line-up of California's variety football eleven have been made by Head Coach Nibs Price and while some may be only experiments, yet they are taken as indications of a profound dissatisfaction on the part of the coaching department with the Blue and Gold eleven as it started against St. Mary's last week and was defeated, 26-7.

Edick Marcus has replaced Earl Jule at halfback, Steve Bancroft and Joe Jacobs have taken over the end positions held by Jim Dougery and Gordon Huber, while Lindgren has been substituted for Ed Giddings at guard. Price said that none of the changes are permanent and that he has not decided whether these men will face the opening kick-off against the Oregon Aggies Saturday.

Price is sending his players through intensive workouts, making

SOCCER TEAMS TO BATTLE

Determined to win and assume undisputed leadership of the City Soccer League, Hollywood will field its strongest team for its encounter with the Thistles at Loyola Field Sunday afternoon. These teams clash in the first half of a scheduled double-header.

Jimmy Teed, a veteran player and one of the finest halfbacks the game has ever seen in the Southland will captain the side. Rankow will be in goal with Brown and Walker doing sentry duty. Brown is a pillar of strength and enterprising forwards find it difficult to get past him.

In the half line, Teed will be flanked by Stewart and Copeland, equally good in defense and in open-

EASTERN GRID TEAMS WOBBLE BEFORE INVADING MACHINES

NEW YORK, Oct. 14. (P)—Wells and groans came today from eastern college eleven's preparing for the greatest list of October stellar battles the game has known.

The Princeton Tigers are trying to locate the drive that was strangely absent against Washington and Lee last week. With Blag out of the backfield from injuries and Captain Davis bandaged up on the side lines, the fabled Beagle simply aren't what they used to be.

The Middles look dangerous Princeton, which is not to sport Yale, nevertheless has taught Navy plays to its sub.

Bruce Caldwell, star of Yale's running attack, returned to practice from the hospital last and was promptly returned to the infirmary with an injured ankle. He can't play against Dartmouth Saturday.

Eddie Dooley, post-laureate of football and the game's most recent bridgehead, has been relegated to the sub and a low-headed sophomore named Harris shoved into his place at quarterback for Dartmouth. Perhaps Joe Hawley remembers that last year when Dooley grabbed a ball intended for another back he failed to make the yardage that would have given Dartmouth a victory rather than a 14-to-14 tie with Yale.

POMONA OWNS WATER PLANT

Money Paid to Owners of Private Company

Transaction Ends Years of Negotiations

City to Immediately Improve System

POMONA, Oct. 14.—With the issuing of a warrant upon the City Treasurer in the amount of $518,000.44, payable to George A. Lathrop, president of the Pomona Water Company, the city has taken the necessary steps to acquire the water plant and system owned by the company.

Yesterday's formalities completed years of effort on the part of local citizens to acquire the property. Technicalities in former proceedings caused cessation of negotiations on several instances, but the last effort of the Citizens' Water Committee, organized by the city council, was successful after a spirited campaign. With the taking over of the property, the city will be able to improve the water plant and system, which is now in poor condition.

Five miles will be installed every 200 feet on all city streets, which will greatly reduce fire hazards.

Highest Court Saves County Oil Tax Money

BAKERSFIELD, Oct. 14.—A decision in favor of Kern county in the most important civil case in its history was indicated by the United States Supreme Court in Washington today, when, after hearing counsel for the General Petroleum Corporation testing the right of Kern county to tax oil lands leased from the government, the Supreme Court notified Dist. Atty. H. E. Schmidt of its decision.

Had the decision, indicated by the action of the Supreme Court to be favorable to Kern county, been against the county, the county would have been faced by what would have been virtual bankruptcy, according to Tom Burke, county assessor, who pointed out that the major portion of the county's tax income accrues from oil lands, and in a great degree from oil lands operated by private companies under leasehold rights granted by the government.

NOTHING TO FEAR

Citrus Expert Says Florida Is No Competition

OLIVE, Oct. 14.—California has nothing to fear from Florida as far as competition in the citrus market is concerned, according to Harold W. Wahlberg, county farm adviser, who presented an account of his recent visit to various agricultural sections of the United States, at the regular monthly meeting last night of the Villa Park-Olive Farm Center, held in the Olive Hall.

A reel of moving pictures entitled "Citrus Growing in Florida," was presented by Wahlberg to illustrate his remarks. "Florida in her competition with California in the citrus market is handicapped by methods of production by her long period of season, heat in the summer that prevents the development of a summer orange to compete with the California Valencia, by her inferior soil that requires the constant use of fertilizers, and by the natural sluggishness of her people, the result of the tropical climate in which they live," Wahlberg declared. "Florida citrus growers pay as much as ship a box of oranges to Scott's, as the California growers pay, owing to the disjunctive marketing system found in Florida at the present time."

TRIAL TO PROCEED

Judge Insists on Early Hearing in Murder Case

SANTA ANA, Oct. 14.—The trial of Rev. Phillip Goodwin, actor-priest charged with murder, will not be postponed from the scheduled date next Monday. This was the definite announcement made today. The trial proceedings will be set over from day to day while Goodwin negotiates for the services of an attorney to replace his discharged counsel, Gavin and Scott, but no extended continuance will be permitted, the District Attorney's office announced today. Goodwin was brought before Superior Judge E. J. Marks to permit his attorneys, Gavin and Scott, to formally withdraw from the defense. The priest at that time had not completed arrangements for substitute counsel. He has indicated that he may request a postponement of the trial date to permit him to perfect plans for the trial.

TELL OF TRAGEDY IN COURT

Murder Trial at Riverside Revives Story of Fatal Love Feud

RIVERSIDE, Oct. 14.—Apparently unconcerned over his fate, Walter Zank, smiling Lithuanian, is on trial for the life of six men and six women, in the court of Superior Judge Freeman. Zank, a big blond man, who speaks English with difficulty, is accused of slaying Lewis P. McNally, a wealthy Banning rancher, in a fit of jealous rage, June 7, last, and of inflicting nearly fatal wounds on Mrs. Annie Rickess, McNally's companion, the woman with whom Zank is said to have lived preceding the tragedy.

How Zank, driving a touring car, forced the small coupe containing McNally and Mrs. Rickess into the curb near the Banning city limits and poured a stream of lead into the bodies of the occupants was recounted in court today by Elmer T. Ellis, who declares he saw the tragedy. Although Ellis failed to recognize Zank in court, no dispute arose on this point as the Lithuanian admits it. McNally, the witness testified, was slain by the man with the revolver who fired two more times.

Meanwhile, according to Ellis, McNally, who had been struck by two bullets, crawled from his automobile and into a near by orchard, where he collapsed. Here he was discovered by the gunman, according to Ellis, who placed his revolver close to the wounded man's head and fired twice more.

Mrs. Rickess will be called to testify tomorrow as will City Attorney Page, Dist. Atty. Paul Stevens at the close of the hearing today. With the examination of these two witnesses he will close his case, he stated today.

Tomorrow afternoon's session probably will be devoted to the examination of defense witnesses. It was stated by Attorney Page that Moore who are defending Zank. The case will be concluded Saturday, it is believed.

The building will be approximately 6000 sq. ft. in size, the main postoffice building in Glendale, in addition to the main postoffice, on East Broadway, but the new substation will have a different class from these. It will be designated as Station A, and will offer to the public the same services as the main postoffice.

HOLD YOUTH ON FORGERY CHARGE

PASADENA, Oct. 14.—With the arrest today on a charge of forgery of Melvin J. Cole, 40 West Bellevue street, Pasadena, police believe they have captured one of the cleverest youthful check forgers who has operated in this vicinity in some time.

Cole, who is only 18 years of age, is said to have cashed checks at a bank in Los Angeles and in Los Angeles totaling about $500. Police say he is the son of G. D. Cole, and the son of the late G. D. Cole, who was a cash checker, forging his father's name, without detection for several years.

Young Cole, who was employed as a chauffeur, is being held at the City Jail for $5000.

Representatives from each of the counties will be called upon to present the business conditions and statistics in their local industrial development. ## HUNDREDS FIND BODY AT BIER OF CLERGYMAN AT POMONA

Bishop Conducts Services at St. Mark's Episcopal Church in Pasadena

Gross Discovery Leads to Thorough Investigation by Officials

POMONA, Oct. 14.—Buried in a shallow hole, fifteen feet off the highway leading into the George Junior Republic grounds, south of this city, the body of an infant which had been buried approximately three weeks was discovered by Charles Bradford, a 16-year-old youth, as he was passing the spot on his bicycle this morning.

As a result of the discovery, Constable Chambers and members of the homicide squad of the sheriff's office are bending every effort to locate the parents of the child with the possibility that, if found, a murder charge will be sworn.

Examination by City Health Officer Dr. Fontaine, disclosed that the tot was born in California, was in such a bad state of decomposition that it was impossible to determine the sex. It had been dragged from its burial place and evidently had laid several days before its discovery.

Willard New, a junior, came to Pomona College after making one of the best high school records in the State of Montana and winning the quarter-mile at the State intercollegiate meet. He has carried out the promise of his high school record by making nearly a straight "A" record in college while winning his varsity letter in track and playing substitute on the varsity football team. He is secretary of the junior class and a member of the Alpha Psi fraternity. His home town is Thompson Falls, Montana.

Constitutional Argument Aimed at Dog Leashing

Declaring the ordinance restricting dogs to owners' premises or on leash when off the premises, which appears on the November 2 general election ballot as Proposition 17-A, is a violation of the constitutional rights of citizens, the American Defense League has issued an argument against the measure, copies of which are being distributed to all registered voters in the city.

ALHAMBRA, Oct. 14.—Life is becoming more and more complicated for dogs in this municipality, at the present rate of legal proceedings. Complaints having been made to the City Commission and to the police that dogs were disturbing the peace of the community by their barking and other annoying habits, the Commissioners have instructed the City Attorney to revise a city ordinance to make it unlawful for one family to own more than one dog. If two or more dogs are owned, it constitutes a nuisance and a special tax is assessed. Buppies don't count.

NEW PROCEEDINGS ON STREET WORK PLANNED

New proceedings are to be started at once by the City Council for dealing with the new ordinance, through the paving with eight-inch concrete of San Fernando Road from Division street to the Glendale city limits, as a result of the Council's action yesterday in abandoning the present ordinance. This action was taken to exclude from the assessment district cemetery property, as there is no doubt as to whether or not this property can be legally assessed. The width of the road in this section is now forty-eight feet, but as a result of the co-operation of the Municipal Power Bureau in agreeing to place its transmission lines in conduits, the additional six feet can be obtained for the new paved roadway.

HANFORD, Oct. 14.—That the Kiwanis Club of this city realized more than its second annual industrial show held in this city last week, was reported at the club luncheon held at the Kiwanis Club today.

This goes into the club's treasury for its community improvement fund and the remainder was invested in electrical and booth equipment available in future shows. It is said that a large delegation from the county will be present at the hearing to protest the closing of the station as such an abandonment would necessitate going from the Simi vicinity to either Santa Susana or Moorpark for railroad facilities.

RICE IS PROFITABLE

Crop Said to Do Well on Land in Imperial

EL CENTRO, Oct. 14.—As the preliminary move in a campaign to encourage the growing of a large acreage of rice in Imperial Valley next season, a field day is to be sponsored early next week by the extension service of the State University. One hundred and sixty acres grown as an experiment during the past season, produced well enough to justify the idea of growing rice in the logical place to be grown on hard, alkali lands which have heretofore been unproductive. It is claimed that as high as forty-five sacks to the acre can be produced under the present conditions. The market return will be much higher than for grain and barley.

NEW YORK CURB STOCKS

NEW YORK, Oct. 14. (AP)—Transactions in curb market securities were on a quiet scale today, although accompanied by a broadening demand for leading stocks which materially advanced general trading conditions. Oil and industrial shares were particularly narrow limits, but attempted liquidation in both of these groups appeared to be checked by substantial support.

Among the active issues were Goodrich Tire, which stood out with a net advance of 3 points; Newmont Mining, which closed for a net gain of 3 points at a new high of 77; and American Brown Boveri up 1 1/2. Bullish activity in Du Pont shares carried them 3 points to higher. Coal shares also were firm. Glen Alden and Lehigh Valley each being in fair demand.

Public utility shares reflected no marked changes, but the steadiness of the tone in this group indicated that accumulation of the floating supply of many of these issues had been absorbed at lower levels in the liquidation of the past week. United Gas Improvement, Northeastern Power, Southeastern Power, Electric Investors and Electric Bond and Share were among the stronger issues.

Steel shares dropped more than 2 points in earlier trading, but recovered the loss later, closing at a fractional net gain. Warner Pictures was under pressure, losing 1 1/4 points on the day.

POMONA ALUMNI IN CELEBRATION

Thirty-ninth Anniversary of College Observed

Former Students of Section Take Part in Affair

Banquet and Ceremony Held at Chamber Quarters

Motoring the thirty-ninth anniversary of the founding of Pomona College, October 14, 1887, and the opening of its fourtieth year of educational service, a large gathering of Pomona College alumni and former students living in Los Angeles and vicinity, participated in the annual Founders' Day banquet and ceremony at the Chamber of Commerce building last night.

The Los Angeles observance of the charter date, which was arranged by Frank M. Strobbridge and Byron S. Phillips, was a part of a world-wide celebration of the founding of the college, which now has 2800 alumni and former students living in forty-five States and eighteen countries.

Last night's celebration opened the fourth year of service of the institution, which begins this year with the establishment of a new college, Scripps College for Women, closely related to Pomona under a federated organization to be known as the Claremont Colleges.

Local alumni also celebrated the first anniversary of the incorporation of Claremont College, and the nineteenth birthday of Miss Ellen Browning Scripps, founder of Scripps College for Women, and great benefactor of Pomona. Her birthday is the 18th inst.

Honors were also shared by Dr. Charles R. Sumner, prominent Southern California educator, who was one of the original founders of Pomona College, and is in his ninetieth year. He still lives in the campus.

Dr. Raymond C. Brooks of the Pomona College faculty, addressed the Los Angeles gathering, calling attention briefly to the successful initiation of freshmen week by Pomona in Southern California, two years ago, the development of the honors courses, which offer new freedom to upper-class students, and the large increase in applications from men applying for entrance into the college.

Progress was announced in the establishment of the federated college plan at Claremont, which includes the building of Scripps College this winter and its subsequent opening for a freshman class in the fall of 1929. The expansion program will provide new opportunities and facilities for Pomona College and its associated institutions.

Bruce Findlay, assistant superintendent of the Los Angeles city schools, was toastmaster. Following the address by Dr. Brooks, Earl Merritt, freshman coach at Pomona College, gave a short address. Frank M. Strobbridge, president of the Los Angeles club, presided.

LOCAL MATRON SINGS IN OPERA

Appearance Gives Friends Surprise

THE diamond borsehoe of Los Angeles grand opera was mildly excited the other evening when friends of Mrs. L. J. Muma, prominent matron, observed her on the stage in an ensemble. Even her most intimate friends did not know she was singing in the productions. Mrs. Muma's musical talent occasionally has led her outside her family circle but heretofore she has appeared only in civic or philanthropic endeavors and never professionally. She has studied music in Edinburgh and Paris and, being left a widow some time ago, she has increased her studies in music.

Her two children are Jane and John. Mrs. Muma now is at the Women's Athletic Club but has homes in Windsor Square and Santa Monica.

Her identity on the opera programs is cloaked under a stage name that she declined to divulge.

SUFFERER DEVISES BODY TO DENTISTS
LONG BEACH, Oct. 14.—Leaving a will giving his body to the college of dentistry, University of Southern California, William Donnell, 61 years of age, committed suicide this afternoon by shooting himself in the right wrist, police reported. Donnell lived with his nephew, Wilcox Long, at 431 Crystal Court. He left a note giving his health as the cause of his action, saying he could no longer bear the pain. The body was taken charge of by Coons Undertaking Company.

HANCOCK CASE DISMISSED

Magenheimer and Conlin Counsel Protests, Demanding Defense Get Open Hearing

United States Commissioner Head yesterday dismissed charges of sending death-threat letters through the mails to G. Allen Hancock that had been filed on September 24, last, against Christian Charles Magenheimer, oil magnate, and Claude A. Conlin, vaudeville magician and crystal gazer, known on the stage as Alexander, The Man Who Knows.

From the outset, when United States Attorney McNabb moved to "dismiss the complaint . . . on the ground that we have no evidence to present at this time," Le Compteur Davis, chief defense counsel, injected voluble protests into the hearing on the ground that his clients were "entitled to a hearing."

Referring to Magenheimer and Conlin, Davis said:

"These men are men of integrity; these men are men of honor, and men who have been known in this community for many years; men who have been thought worthy to associate with the very men who are now seeking their conviction under one of the most heinous crimes known to the law."

ACCUSES PROSECUTION
Davis charged that the United States Attorney's office had sought an open hearing from the time of the arrest, saying their "only object . . . was to throw the men into jail without hearing, because when the time rolls around when their (his clients) have a hearing under this complaint, they fight it, and rather than come out into the open, they come now and ask . . . dismissal."

Asked to repeat his reason for requesting dismissal of the case before United States Commissioner Head, United States Attorney McNabb explained:

"On the ground that we do not care to introduce evidence at this time. We haven't the evidence, in my opinion, to warrant a hearing of this case at this time, and I ask that the case be dismissed and that the bonds be exonerated."

Commissioner Head's compliance with the motions technically absolves Magenheimer and Conlin of guilt. The government's only cause for further action lies in what postal inspectors develop in the way of evidence in the future and in the meantime, both former defendants are free men under the law, to go or do whatever they please.

SARGENT TAKES HAND
Magenheimer and Conlin were released late in the afternoon of September 24, last, and were almost immediately released on bonds of $50,000 each. Later their bonds were reduced to $10,000 each.

the detectives entered the woman's room. They found conditions as described by the landlady. Glancing curiously at the motionless form on the bed, the detectives quietly closed the door, and Hickey, a red bandanna handkerchief from his pocket and draped it over the knob to preserve what finger prints might be there as Hickey, donning a pair of rubber gloves, began his search for clues.

In the several minutes that elapsed Hickey had deposited in a long yellow envelope two hairs, a bone button and a silk thread found on the rug beside the bed.

Then just as the undertaker arrived in a silent funereal manner, Hickey and Condafer stepped to the bed and pulled the covers back from the woman's face.

Before the astonished gaze of the detectives the woman suddenly sat up and cried out, "Hey, what's the idea?"

And it came to pass that the woman, Mrs. Jessie Kent, told the police that she had been married just two weeks, that her husband has a job driving a lumber truck; and that she had accompanied him on a trip to Bakersfield, from which she had not a few hours previously returned.

"Huh," announced Hickey, "I guess we'd better get back to headquarters."

"Yeah," agreed Condafer, "there might be a murder or something."

BOTANICAL EXPERT DUE FOR VISIT

Dr. L. H. Bailey to Pass Winter in California With Wife and Daughter

Dr. Liberty Hyde Bailey, Ithaca, N. Y., world renowned botanical and horticultural authority, will arrive in Los Angeles within a few days, with Mrs. Bailey and daughter Ethel, to pass the winter in Southern California.

Dr. Bailey was president of the recent International Botanical Congress, which met in Ithaca in August, and at which were more than 900 botanists coming from all the countries of the world, more than 100 coming from Europe alone. He also is president of the American Academy for the Advancement of Science, which will hold its next annual meeting in Philadelphia during the holidays, a meeting Dr. Bailey will attend, afterward rejoining his family in California.

All California plantmen are familiar with Bailey's Standard Cyclopedia of Horticulture, the largest work of his kind, and accepted as the standard of authority in all institutions of learning.

While here Dr. Bailey will go to Berkeley to receive a series of lectures at the University of California and it is expected that he will deliver a series of lectures at the California Botanical Foundation, of which Arthur S. Bent, president of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce, is the head.

MEDAL FOR ENGINEER IN GAS PLANT

Henry F. Ketz Honored for Prompt Action at Time of Earthquake

Henry F. Ketz, plant engineer of the Southern Gas Company at Santa Barbara, was given the American Gas Association's highest award in recognition of his prompt action when he shut the main gas lines leading into the city of Santa Barbara at the time of the earthquake.

The medal, the highest award in the gas distribution world, was presented by A. E. MacBeth, vice-president of the Southern Counties Gas Company and newly-elected president of the national gas association.

Ketz's heroic action on the morning of June 20, 1925, was not of a spectacular nature, but his real worth was immediately recognized by his employers and honored at that time.

Following the earthquake, Ketz, who was on duty in the plant, noticed that his meters registered an increased flow of gas into the city, indicating broken gas mains. He immediately shut off the entire gas supply to the city, removing one of the greatest earthquake hazards, fire from broken gas lines. The value of his act is emphasized by comparison with the fire damage following the Santa Barbara earthquake with that of San Francisco in 1906, when the gas flow continued unchecked.

CITY IN NEED OF FEDERAL OFFICE

Washington Official Makes Survey Here

Finds Departments Crowding Out Postoffice

Hundred Cities in State Rent Postal Buildings

Los Angeles is not in distress so far as a central building for its postoffice activities is concerned, but it stands in need of a Federal office building to take care of many departments now crowded into the postoffice building, according to Frank E. McMillin of Washington, superintendent of postoffice quarters and engineer of the Postoffice Department, who arrived at the Biltmore yesterday.

Mr. McMillin is one of four government representatives now making a survey of the country to determine the need of building new postoffice sections.

The last Congress authorized the appropriation of $150,000 for 150 postoffice buildings throughout the country, this amount to be spent at the rate of $25,000,000 a year for six years, said Mr. McMillin.

"Here in Los Angeles you need a Federal office building. Of course, the logical place to build it is in the direction of the growth of your city, would be to erect a new postoffice building and that may be done eventually but it will perhaps not be among the first recommendations. It is likely, however, that a new postoffice building for Los Angeles will be recommended as among the pressing needs. Long Beach is the largest postoffice in the United States without a Federal building."

"In more than 800 cities throughout the country, where the postoffice receipts run from $20,000 to $800,000 annually, the government conducts its postoffice in rented quarters," he said. "Of these cities, there are 100 in California."

Mr. McMillin said the business of the Postoffice Department has doubled in the last five years, being at this time $800,000,000 annually. He said that in the next five years it will go to $1,000,000,000 a year, he added.

FILM CHIEF KEEPS MUM ON MERGER

Head of F.O.B. Back from Europe Refuses to Deny Union With Universal

Declining to comment directly on the rumor that a consolidation is pending between the Famous Players and the Film Booking Office of America, but intimating in his attitude that such reports may contain a measure of truth, Joseph P. Kennedy, president of F.B.O., returned to Los Angeles yesterday after several months spent abroad. In the course of his trip Kennedy concluded a deal in London whereby Ideal Films will handle all F.B.O. production in England.

"I won't answer that question, but I don't mean that I don't want to answer it," was Kennedy's cryptic reply when asked pointblank whether his organization and Universal will join forces.

The producer declared that the rumors were probably predicated on the fact that the two organizations handle practically the same class of picture production. He then added:

"I believe the merger proposition is absolutely sound among producing companies. The cost of distribution is too high today, and there is no hope of reducing costs without mergers and consolidations. The cost of producing pictures among production studios is tremendous, and there can be no reduction in the cost to exhibitors until this overhead is reduced and, consequently, no decrease in the price of admission to theaters. I believe that the future will see many consolidations among production organizations doing similar work."

Kennedy was met at the train in San Bernardino by Edward C. Kennedy, president in charge of production at the F.B.O. studio, with whom he motored into Los Angeles.

JEFFRIES MUST DEFEND TITLE

Challenger to Legal Bout Names Whole Family as Contenders

James J. Jeffries, former heavyweight champion of the world, is called upon to defend title to "Toodles" in a civil action filed yesterday by Mrs. Myra Swift of the Burbank Chamber of Commerce.

"Toodles" is said to be at present in the custody of Jeffries, whose wife, Freda, and 18-year-old daughter Mary also are named in the suit for claim and delivery of the French poodle.

Mrs. Swift, who is represented by Attorney Frank Gray, declares the poodle was given her as a wedding present four years ago. Mrs. Jeffries is understood to maintain that the dog belongs to her and disappeared four years ago.

JUDGE SAYS STATE NOT IMPARTIAL

Points Out Discrimination Against Women Offenders in Sentencing Edith Swain

Condemnation of existing discrimination against women law violators was voiced yesterday by Judge Burnell in sentencing Edith Swain, 24 years of age, to serve from one to fourteen years in San Quentin on a forgery charge. She was given a stay of execution for 60 days and it was intimated probation will be considered.

There is a prison camp for men, said Judge Burnell, but no similar arrangement for women, who have no alternative but San Quentin. He suggested some provision for women offenders similar to the prison camp idea. In lieu of any other arrangement, he said, it would be better to put them at scrubbing and cleaning work in the General Hospital.

ENSIGN DECLARED INJURED

Witness Describes Appearance of McShane, Found Dead at Harbor, During Yacht Party

Ensign J. J. McShane of the U.S.S. Tennessee suffered severe injuries before he drowned at Berth 191, Wilmington, Saturday morning. It was brought out yesterday before the navy court of inquiry into the circumstances of his death. The witness whose testimony established this was Orville Tate, a watchman at Berth 191, who saw a man answering McShane's description at 4 a.m. Saturday, three and a half hours after the breaking up of a party the ensign attended at the California Yacht Club.

On his coat. He started the man off in the right direction again, he said, and saw no more of him.

McShane's body was recovered by navy divers Monday at Berth 191, after a two-day search for him. Other witnesses included stewards from the yacht club, who testified the navy party broke up at 12:30 a.m. The court is headed by Capt. W. T. Cluverius of the U.S.S. West Virginia. The judge advocate is Capt. J. F. Walker, Marine Corps, and the other witnesses are Lieutenant-Commander Frank Sherman and Lieutenant-Commander E. H. Hanson, all of the West Virginia. The first sessions of the court were conducted on board the West Virginia, where Tennessee officers who attended the party were questioned. The court then adjourned to Berth 191 and the California Yacht Club. It will meet again today.

OUR HISTORY IN PICTURES 535

The End of the Peninsular Campaign.

by J. CARROLL MANS

WHEN GENERAL LEE LEARNED THAT McCLELLAN'S ARMY WAS MARCHING TOWARD THE JAMES, HE STARTED IN PURSUIT AND FLUNG HIS TROOPS UPON THE FEDERAL COLUMNS. THE UNION SOLDIERS HELD THEIR OWN IN A HOT FIGHT AT SAVAGE'S STATION ON JUNE 29 (1862) AND AGAIN IN A FIERCE ENGAGEMENT AT FRAZER'S FARM ON THE 30TH.

REACHING THE JAMES, McCLELLAN, A MASTER OF DEFENSIVE FIGHTING, TOOK A STRONG POSITION AT MALVERN HILL. LEE, THINKING HIS OPPONENTS WERE EXHAUSTED AND DISCOURAGED, ORDERED HIS MEN TO THE ASSAULT ON JULY 1ST. AGAIN AND AGAIN THE GRAY LINES CHARGED UP THE HEIGHTS WITH THE GREATEST GALLANTRY, BUT WERE SWEEPED BACK WITH GREAT LOSSES.

AT LAST THE CONFEDERATES WERE FORCED TO RETREAT AND ONCE MORE RICHMOND LAY WITHIN McCLELLAN'S REACH. BUT, INSTEAD OF PRESSING HIS ADVANTAGE, THE NORTHERN GENERAL FELL BACK TO HARRISON'S LANDING, THERE TO PLAN ANOTHER CAMPAIGN AGAINST THE CITY UNDER THE PROTECTING GUNS OF THE FEDERAL FLOTILLA IN THE JAMES.

McCLELLAN HAD NOT BEEN IN THE ARMY STILL THREATENING RICHMOND. FAILURE TO CAPTURE THE CAPITAL CONSTITUTED A UNION MILITARY DISASTER. AND TEN DAYS LATER McCLELLAN WAS FORCED TO WASHINGTON AND HIS ARMY TO THE POTOMAC.

Reports of detectives de- the search at a late hour and failed to find any trace of the "heavyweight" bandit who in the day held up the cashier at the Bank of America at 1000 Main and got away with $1130.

On the second time this month the bank was held up. On the first occasion, the 4th last, two men, to obtain their purpose, entered the bank and, with the aid of a man in a uniform, who in a spectacular manner, brought down with him a large number of dollars, the bandit was Clifford. CONSTANCE
UNDECIDED
ON DIVORCE

Confirms Her Separation;
Schenck to Build Theater
on Downtown Site

Although confirming again her separation from her husband, Capt. Alastair Mackintosh, Constance Talmadge, motion-picture actress, declared on her arrival here yesterday from New York that she does not know when she will sue for divorce or on what ground her complaint will be based. "Everything already has been said," stated Miss Talmadge. "I really haven't given any thought to the divorce. No, I don't know whether I will be married again. That's all I have to say."

News of a more definite nature on a different subject was forthcoming, however, from Joseph M. Schenck, who also arrived yesterday with his wife, Norma Talmadge. I. C. Freud, associate of Schenck in the United Artists theater chain project, was the fourth member of the party.

According to Schenck's announcement, the first theater in the proposed United Artists chain will be erected in Los Angeles on a downtown site, the location of which will be announced within a week. This theater, planned as one of the finest on the west coast, will be ready for occupancy by September or October of next year, Schenck stated.

Body Found Floating Off
El Segundo Bears Marks
Indicating Violence

Investigation of a possible murder at sea was launched yesterday by the Sheriff's office following the finding of the body of a man floating in the ocean near El Segundo. The man's face had been badly crushed from ear to ear, and the theory was advanced by Deputy Sheriff Amstein and Allen that he had been killed in a shipboard, possibly in a fight on some rum-running vessel.

The body, which was taken to the Gale mortuary in Redondo Beach, is that of a man about 5 feet, 2 inches in height, with sandy hair and swarthy. It was clad in gray trousers, blue shirt and heavy sweater. The shirt bore the laundry mark, "L.M. 302."
